ASX Release

5 February 2020

Change of Chief Financial Officer

Leading Smart Cities solution provider SenSen Networks Limited (ASX: SNS, "SenSen" or "the Company") is pleased to advise that it has appointed Mr Jon Cook as Acting Chief Financial Officer, replacing Mr Tony Lynch.

Jon is a commercially astute and strategically focused senior finance professional with more than 20 years' experience in diverse industries, nine years of which have been spent working internationally. He has a depth of corporate and commercial experience in several geographic regions including USA, Europe, Asia and Australia.

Commencing his corporate career with KPMG, Jon gained multi-faceted global experience in audit, advisory, consulting, M&A and private business services roles across the globe for over a decade. Subsequent positions included senior finance director, CFO and operational roles with CSR Limited, Dakota Capital and Palisade Investment Partners, with his most recent position being the Asia Pacific Finance Director for James Hardie Industries.

Tony Lynch departs SenSen on very good terms. Since 2017, Tony has been instrumental in building a strong finance function within the Company and advising the SenSen Board on complex accounting standard changes as the company has grown.

SenSen CEO Subhash Challa said:

"I would sincerely like to thank Tony for his professionalism, effort and hard work. He has made a significant contribution to SenSen's transition into an exciting ASX-listed public company and the SenSen team will miss him. We wish him well for his next endeavour."

"I am also delighted to welcome Jon Cook to the executive team and I have no doubt he will add considerable value to the Company as we rapidly expand our global footprint. I very much look forward to the strong contribution Jon will make in the CFO role."

This ASX announcement is authorized by the Board of SenSen.
