Service of Proceedings

Leading sensor AI software and solution provider SenSen Networks Limited (ASX:SNS) (“SenSen” or “the Company”) has today announced that SenSen has been served with Federal Court of Australia proceedings by the solicitors for Angel Group Co., Ltd and Angel Australasia Pty Ltd (Angel) whereby it is alleged that SenSen has infringed two of Angel's Australian patents.

Angel seeks declaratory relief, a permanent injunction, delivery up or destruction, compensation, interest and costs.

The quantum of the sought compensation has not been identified at this stage.

SenSen intends to vigorously defend these proceedings and bring a cross-claim against Angel to claim relief for unjustified threats of patent infringement and invalidity of the Angel patents in suit.

SenSen will keep the market updated.

This release is approved by the Board of SenSen.
